

AMONG THE CLUBS

The Twentieth Century Club will hold its regular monthly meeting Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at the Unitarian Church. The speaker for the day will be John Barrett, director general of the Pan-American Union, who will address the members on "Pan-America and the Panama Canal." Miss Julia C. Lathrop, one of the children's bureau, will have spoken on the work of the bureau, but an unavoidable absence from the city will prevent, and the whole time devoted to the program will be taken up by Mr. Barrett. At the business meeting, which precedes the program, an amendment to one of the by-laws of the club will be voted upon.

ANTHONY LEAGUE.
Dr. Sarah M. Severs addressed the Anthony League Tuesday, at its "at home," on "Woman's Responsibilities." She will continue her talks next Tuesday at 2:30 p.m. in the league's rooms at the Fortner.

Tuesday night the league and a large audience of music lovers were entertained in the ballroom of the Cairo, by Miss Clara McCarty, pianist, who gave a concert assisted by Mrs. Edward Clement and Edward Callow. Speeches from Mrs. McCarty, Mrs. Callow, and Miss McCarty B. Paul concluded the program. At the business meeting of the week delegates and alternates of the District Federation of Women's Clubs to be held at the Jewish Temple May 5 and 6, and at which the Anthony League's annual report will be read by its president, Mrs. Hendley.

Thursday night, the last of the lecture course, Mrs. Charles H. Turner will give a group of readings from Marion Douglas and music will be furnished by the Mundell Quintet Orchestra. The public is cordially invited.

COLUMBIA HEIGHTS ART CLUB.

The Columbia Heights Art Club met Thursday, with Mrs. William Grayson Foot, Mrs. Augustus Knight, the president.

The art paper "The Statues of Washington," was read by Mrs. Grace Boynton Logan, president of the District of Columbia Federation of Women's Clubs. The historical paper was presented by Mrs. Carl Schuler. The papers and answers to roll call brought out the many sides to Washington's character. Twenty-five members were present, with only five absentees.

At the conclusion of the regular program, Mrs. Edward Callow gave two numbers. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Margaret Christian, Fort Lincoln, Tex.; Miss Ruth Shaw, San Antonio, Tex.; and her cousin, Miss Ethel Eldridge, Houston, Tex., students at Belmont. The guests were Mrs. S. D. Hardy, Miss Doris, Miss Isabel Heisler and Mrs. Oscar Calloway of Texas.

W. R. C.

Mrs. Ida S. McBride, national president, W. R. C., from Indianapolis, Ind., visited Washington last week. Col. John McElroy tendered her the use of an automobile in which to view the city, accompanied by the president of the Department of the Potomac W. R. C., Mrs. Georganna D. Van Fleet. Mrs. Van Fleet opened her home Friday evening for a reception and invited members of the G. A. R. and W. R. C. to meet Mrs. McBride. Features of the evening were recitations by the little Misses Chambers and Jackson, solos by Miss Florence Hanauer. Refreshments were served by the department W. R. C., which also presented Mrs. McBride with a cut glass pitcher.

LIVINGSTON MANOR CHAPTER, D. A. R.

Livingston Manor Chapter, D. A. R., met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Miss Bertha Gray, 923 I street. After the regular business the roll call was called, the responses being "Great Financiers." The historian gave a short account of some phases of the Continental Congress. A paper on "The Stock Exchange" was read by Mrs. Nagle, and the discussion led by Mrs. Casanova. Mrs. Howard A. Coombs gave two piano solos and Mrs. M. D. Lindsay two vocal solos. A social hour followed, during which refreshments were served. Among the visitors present were Mrs. L. B. Stage, a non-resident member of the chapter, and Miss Rameburgh, both of Frederick, Md.

SHORT STORY CLUB.

The Short Story Club held its last regular meeting of the season Friday evening at the W. C. T. U. parlors, which were filled by members and guests. President Robert S. Moore presided and the program was in charge of Miss Mahe T. Hiatt. The story of the evening, "Sarah Bell, Doubter," the initial effort before the club of Mr. Moneyway, was appreciatively received. The club's composite play, read but not acted, entitled "Modern Maid," was closed by Henry P. Holden with the third act, which settled temporarily at least, the great "woman question" and her "mission," by the simple process of marrying her off at the "male." Dr. W. J. Heustis and Mrs. Bertha Lincoln Heustis, rejoined the club after nearly a year's residence in Los Angeles, Cal., and received hearty welcome. Dr. Heustis gave interesting reminiscences of his early life, his travels and experiences in the east, middle west and Pacific coast regions, and in Switzerland, including a real "true to life" story of a German baron's gratitude to his American benefactor. Mrs. Heustis read an original story, "Pietro." Mrs. Florence C. Hooker of Los Angeles, by invitation, gave two of her poems, "Failure" and "The Desert." Musical numbers, including a soprano solo by Mrs. A. V. Steubenreich, her selection being "Off in Den Still Nacht," selections from the "Red Mill," by Victor Herbert, by the Thomas Mrs. Tullin and guitar club, Mrs. Jennie Mysen-Land, accompanist; also two numbers, soprano solos, by Miss Geneva Yawson, "The Swan Song," by Grieg, and Rubinstein's famous "Sultan's Daughter," both well given. Mrs. Land, pianist, gave also Grieg's "On the Mountainside."

Bristol, chaplain, and Mrs. Katherine Van Aiken, historian. Refreshments were served. The vice regent, Miss McFarland, who has been traveling in Italy, Egypt and the Holy Land, was present.

The Right Sort.

From Pearson's Weekly.
Mr. Beach Chester, who has just published a new book, "That Reminds Me," tells a story of a Scotman in London who wrote a letter containing a proposal of marriage to a young lady in Aberdeen and, wanting to know his fate as soon as possible, asked her to telephone her reply.

He expected to hear from her in the morning, and he hung about the telephone all day, but it was evening before he had the joy of hearing her dear voice.

hundreds of miles away, accepting his proposal.

"If I were you," remarked a friend to whom he confided the reason of his election, "I'd think twice before I married a girl who kept me waiting all day for an answer."

"Na, na," retorted the Scotman, "the lass that waits for the cheaper night rates is the lass for me!"

Words of Wisdom.

From Pearson's Weekly.
Dr. J. M. Buckley, who is writing his autobiography in the Christian Advocate, relates that he once saw Tennyson in the South Kensington Museum with two ladies and two children. Mr. Buckley circumspectly drew near, hoping to overhear some words of wisdom from the great man. He continued these tactics for an hour, but without success. Tennyson kept right on, saying nothing. At last Mr. Buckley detected some pre-monitory symptoms of speech, drew softly nearer and heard these never-to-be-forgotten words: "You hold the children while I get a glass of beer."

MOST IMPORTANT NEMO WEEK

SHOWING OF NEW NATURE-FIGURE MODELS BEGINNING MAY 4TH

DEAR MADAM:—We have been asked many times: "What is the meaning of Nemo Week?" "What is the inducement to buy Nemos at that time, when I can buy them any day in the year?"

These inquiries do not come from the hundreds of thousands of women who have benefited by Nemo Weeks of the past ten years, and who are now more enthusiastic Nemo devotees than ever. For the information of others, we will explain what Nemo Week stands for:

ECONOMY Dealers everywhere prepare for Nemo Week by placing in stock the very latest Nemo models—always the last word in corset style and comfort—and replenishing their stocks of the well-known and popular numbers that are always in universal demand. This gives you your selection from full lines of fresh, new goods, and the very newest fabrics and styles; therefore, the BEST POSSIBLE VALUES. And expert fitting will assure you a corset that will give you lasting satisfaction and long wear—that's another economy.

EDUCATION During this great trade movement, dealers vie with each other to give the best Nemo corset-service. This is highly important, especially this season, when Fashion's requirement is for a fashionable figure rather than a fashionable gown. The keen rivalry between expert fitters in the various stores insures you their most able assistance in the fascinating study of correct style, and in the selection of the corset best adapted to attain that style for each individual figure.

The Rivalry of Nemo Week is that of SERVICE—not PRICE

Nemo Week this year brings you the only complete standardized line of corsets in existence, from the old short models to the extreme of present fashion, including—

KOPSERVICE—Four wonderful models—all at $5.00
SELF-REDUCING—Thirty models—$3.00, $4, $5, $7.50
LASTIKOPS—Ten models at $3.00, $5.00 and $10.00

All our former successes will be eclipsed by this Nemo Week. Practically every woman will realize that she cannot afford to miss this opportunity to study the new Nemo models, full assortments of which will be on sale in every leading Corset Department.

All Nemo Corsets represent at least twice as much value, in material and making, as any other corsets sold at the same prices. This is a bold statement, but its truth is known to millions of Nemo wearers. BE A WISE WOMAN! During Nemo Week, get better acquainted with Nemo hygienic comfort and perfect style. BE SURE that you get the RIGHT MODEL in the RIGHT SIZE, and that every corset bears the trademarks NEMO and LASTIKOPS. Please remember—Monday, May 4, to Saturday, May 9—at your favorite store.

All Nemo Corsets are Designed and Manufactured Under the Supervision of the Nemo Hygienic-Fashion Institute, New York
